

Organize His Way

A Christ-Centered Approach to Organizing Your Life

A different book, a different perspective.

“Organize His Way” is a special book that taught me a lot and made me realize how “disorganization” interferes with our relationships, especially our relationship with God. As I read the book it came more clear to me what it really means to “store up treasures in heaven.” The Mary Martha chapter is invaluable and gave me a new perspective on this teaching. After reading the book and finishing the class, I can relax realizing that I can organize one step at a time and it is about getting closer to God; when He is in it, we can be successful. I sincerely recommend this book and the class.

Are we in love with God or just His stuff? “Organize His Way” reveals how our clutter keeps us from experiencing God’s intimacy and blessings.

In her early days as a certified professional organizer, Eileen Koff CPO® quickly understood that to make a difference in the lives of her clients, she had to unveil the disorganizing lies that kept them in disarray. Simply shedding God’s Word like light in a darkened room allows her clients to see the root causes of their clutter. Eileen’s “Organize His Way” dispels the myths, lies, and false beliefs that keep people in bondage to their possessions, and outlines realistic expectations on how to maintain the work in progress. Eileen believes strongly that while our thought processes dictate our actions, those thoughts are rooted in our belief systems. Unveiling those beliefs, founded on God’s Word, is the cornerstone of her book. Writing in a supportive, nonjudgmental tone, Eileen uses real-life stories, scriptures, and questions to enhance your learning and encourage you to seek out the reason behind your clutter. “Organize His Way” has already changed the lives of hundreds of clients seeking Eileen’s help and inspiration. “Organize His Way” will change your life too!

Eileen Koff CPO®

Eileen Koff CPO® is the founder and president of To The Next Level, a certified professional organizing business based on Long Island, NY, and the 2013 NAPO-LA award winner for “Best Green Service.” Ever since her teenage years, Eileen has taken great joy in helping people organize and simplify their surroundings. Her passion is speaking to and teaching various groups on the joys of leading an orderly life, but her obsession lies in witnessing the transforming power of God’s Word in the lives of those she serves. Eileen lives with her husband Wayne, married 36 years, and they have raised three sons: Ian, Evan, and Keenan. When not organizing, she can be found enjoying the joys of cooking, traveling with her husband across the globe, building an orphanage in Entebbe, Uganda, and growing closer day by day to Jesus.
