

Micca Campbell

Micca Campbell has been described as “memorable.” Her southern style, natural wit, and real-life applications will make you instant friends, but her ability to communicate God’s Word with power and passion will change your life! As a master-storyteller, she’s able to captivate audiences with modern illustrations for God’s timeless truths. Through her sense of humor, Micca brings down walls of resistance so that Light can penetrate all hearts. Her passion for making Truth a reality in every woman’s life is sure to challenge and inspire audiences of all kinds.

Micca is a sought after speaker endorsed by Christian Speakers 4 You; an organization promoted by Women of Faith. She has been a student of God’s Word for over 20 years. When God called her into full-time ministry, Micca was eager to serve. She was tempted to purchase a bus, paint Jesus Saves across the side, and set out to save the world! But God had a different plan, and today, Micca is a national speaker for women’s events, touching and transforming the lives of thousands across the U.S.—without the bus. She is the author of An Untroubled Heart; Finding A Faith That Is Stronger Than All My Fear, and a contributor to God’s Purpose for Every Woman; A P31 Woman’s Devotional. Micca is the Director of Outreach for Proverbs 31 Ministries, and writes regularly for the ministry’s online devotionals, “Encouragement for Today,” featured on Crosswalk.com.

Losing her husband in death through a tragic accident at the age of 21, Micca tenderly demonstrates, with wisdom and authenticity, how God is enough for even the darkest times. She has since remarried a wonderful man, and to the surprise of their three children, was named Mother of the Year in 2003 by ParentLife Magazine. Together they make their home in Nashville, TN

“Micca is a wonderfully gifted woman who has a passion to speak for the Lord. I am convinced that she has a call of God upon her life. She is a blessing to me and to this fellowship. However, I believe she is an even greater blessing to the Kingdom of God.”

Pastor James R. Moore

Micca knows the unpredictable nature of life through her husband’s tragic accident resulting in death. Reeling from her loss, Micca discovered God’s remedy for our deepest fears. Exploring the anxieties of every woman’s heart, Micca presents a woman’s guide for living a worry-free life. You’ll be encouraged to lay down your worries, trust in your Heavenly Father, and embrace a life marked by peace and joy. Bible-Study included.

“One word describes Micca – Memorable! Micca’s passion, for Jesus and His ability to heal hurting lives, breathes new life into every listener. She captivates the audience with her ability to weave deep truths together with humor. Micca’s message will change your life. I know she changed mine!”

Faith That Is Stronger Than All My Fear

Fearful, anxious, worried, and panic-stricken are the words that describe nearly 40 million American's. What are we afraid of...a failing economy, waking up to an intruder, riding in an airplane or the fear of the future? Fear is a fascinating subject because it has a positive side and a negative side. The negative side of fear places limits on life that cause us to seek faulty methods to remedy our worries. It keeps us from being all God wants us to be. Fear robs us of our dreams, our joy, and our witness. On the positive side, fear can stimulate us to greatness! It can motivate us to obey the ways of God and keep us from danger. Either way, fear is a powerful emotion. In this widely acclaimed conference, Micca teaches audiences how to lay down their worries, trust in their heavenly Father, and embrace a life marked with peace and joy.
