

Wendy Pope

Speaker • Author

Wendy connects with warmth, wit and authenticity whether speaking on stage or engaging in personal conversation. Reflecting grace and wisdom gleaned from her consistent study of Scripture, she inspires women to begin or renew a commitment to daily prayer and Bible study. Wendy's passion to impart Jesus' words, "I've come that they may have life, and have it to the full," will refresh a woman in her calling as wife, mother, friend, leader, and most importantly, daughter of God.

Wendy is married with two children. She's the author of Out of the Mouths of Babes, is a contributing author for God's Purpose for Every Woman and The Reason We Speak, and has been featured in P31 Woman magazine. You can read Wendy's devotions in Encouragement for Today online devotions, which reach over 300,000 daily. In 2009, on her blog, Wendy led over 1000 people through a daily study of the One-Year Chronological Bible.

"Wendy has inspired me to new depths of enthusiasm for exploring God's Word, yet made the discovery process simple enough to learn and use even amidst my sometimes chaotic schedule. Wendy's passion for living out God's Word in her everyday life is refreshing, her teaching style is motivating and her approach to delving into the Scriptures is fun to learn and exciting to apply."

Speaking Topics

At the End of Your Rope: Untying the Knots to Spiritual Freedom

Why are so many living in captivity when God meant for them to live in fullness and freedom? Wendy teaches how to attain His freedom and experience fullness of life as promised in John 10:10 as she moves women to:

- Expose what stole their freedom
- Discover freedom found in obedience to God's Word
- Embrace freedom in Christ by serving others

What to do in the W.A.I.T.: Finding Contentment in God's Pauses and Plans

What do you do when God presses the pause button? By examining the life of David, Wendy teaches how to find contentment in the interim. Be inspired to:

- View pauses as opportunities
- Step out of the security of the known to find peace in the unknown
- See the goodness of the Lord in the wait

The Yes, No, and Maybe of a Balanced Life

Are you too busy juggling the demands of life? Do you want to rest in the rhythm of life God has planned for you? If so, Wendy will lead you to:

- Define what balance is and is not
- Discern when to say yes, no, and maybe
- Discover and rest in the steadiness of God's plan

Living Free in Christ: Experiencing Life as it was Meant to be

Does your life reflect the freedom God intended or are you bound to the shame from your past? Leave your chains behind and walk in the freedom found in Joel as Wendy motivates you to:

- Embrace God's formula for freedom
- Apply God's expectations for freedom
- Believe God can make beauty from ashes

The Gift Goes On (Christmas)

The prophet Isaiah extols Jesus as the "Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace." Wendy brings this Scripture to life as she connects the prophecy in Isaiah 9:6 to everyday life. A woman listening to this message will be encouraged to:

- Seek her Wonderful Counselor when she needs wisdom and guidance
- Draw strength from her Mighty God when she feels defenseless
- Enjoy her Everlasting Father who is consistent when life is not
- Rest in her Prince of Peace when she becomes restless

Wendy's topics can be adjusted to meet your individual ministry needs. Each topic is forty-five minutes to an hour. For additional topics visit www.proverbs31.org. "Wendy loves God and His Word with all of her heart and it is evident when she speaks and writes. She passionately shares about God and yet exposes her own shortcomings so that she can connect with her audience. She encourages women to spend time with God every day and to put God first in all things. She is fun, energetic and engaging. I know that we will be friends for life."

"Wendy has a delightful presence and a confidence in the truth in God's Word. She has a good balance of sharing openly and humbly from her own life but allows God to take charge. She passionately shares scriptures and exhorts women to make time alone with God a priority in their lives. Her love for Jesus and her convictions based on His Word are strongly evident."
