

WHEN RUINS SING

The Remix of Our Resurrected Lives

*"You'll use the old rubble of past lives to build anew.
rebuild the foundations from out of your past.
You'll be known as those who can fix anything.
restore old ruins. rebuild and renovate.
make the community livable again."* Isaiah 58:12 MSG

Victory clearly calls for celebration. The military does a victory march, athletes, a victory dance, and motorsports, a victory lap. Christ's resurrection was the ultimate victory over death; therefore, as His children, we have the ultimate reason to sing a victory song, to belt out that celebratory act with our lives. We were dead but now we live. We were ruins but now, restored, rebuilt, and renovated, we sing.

What is the REMIX set on REPLAY in your life?

What do you want it to be?

Katie was born and raised in Memphis, Tennessee, where a loving family and the River City watered her roots. She met Jesus at the age of 8 at a Billy Graham crusade and then "Tennessee Waltzed" herself right into decades of bondage, making Memphis her Egypt. Little did she know that the God who saved her little 8 year old soul would ultimately turn that Egypt into Graceland, giving her songs of deliverance to dance her "blue suede shoes" to. Memphis may be known for the blues, but "when ruins sing" you can't help but hear AMAZING GRACE. Knowing her Deliverer up-close and personal, Katie clings to the promise of Psalm 81:10, "I, the Lord, am your God, Who brought you up from the land of Egypt; Open your mouth wide and I will fill it."

"When ruins sing" they simply open their mouth, trusting that the God who saved, freed and continues to make them new, will keep HIS WORD, and fill that mouth with GOD, not just GOOD, things.

With the Lord sweetly whispering in Katie's ear, "Arise, take the journey before the people" (Deut. 10:11) this book is an invitation, welcoming readers to join her as a FREEDOM RIDER from Egypt to the Promised Land. Pack your tambourine, because a sing-along is always better together.
